DOLLY SPANKER'S FAST MILE,

WINS THE EQUALITY STAKES AT THE BAY IN 1:38.

Savable, a Hot Favorite, Badly Beaten -Waterside, Aurumaster and River Pirate Also Unsuccessful First Choices --Drake's Britisher Gallops Home.

The defeat of John A. Drake's Savable The defeat of John A. Drake's Savable in the Equality Stakes, at a mile, was the most depressing incident of a series of setbacks for the talent at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon. Savable picked up top weight and was the hottest kind of a favorite, backed down to even money. He ran as if he dition left at odds with the world in general or was on the verge of a nervous collapse, for the only horse he managed to beat was James Galway's Meltonian, who broke down and hobbled off on three legs. Rochampton. 30 to 1, was in front for three-quarters of a where Hildebrand took command with R. T. Wilson Jr.'s Dolly Spanker, 6 to 1, an added starter. The latter had a feather to carry and romped home, being eased at the end, to win by half a length in 1:38, the fastest mile of the year. E. R. Thomas's St. Valentine, 16 to 5, second choice, secured the place from James R. Keene's Toboggan, 12 to 1, by two and a half lengths. Then followed Roehampton, Grey Friar and Savable, strung

Another distressing event was the downfall of Newton Bennington's Waterside, 13 to 10 favorite, in the third race, for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, Futurity course. He was leading at the bend in the track, but curled up under the strain and was unable to stay in the money. Sydney Paget's Tongorder, 18 to 5, then came with a great rush and took the race by a length in a drive from J. E. Madden's Hot Shot, 7 to 1, who beat E. R. Thomas's St. Bellane, 14 to 5, a head. The time was 1:06 2-5.

Those who were instrumental in backing Cascine down to 12 to 1 in the second race, for platers at six furlongs, received a severe jarring when the stewards disqualified this colt for fouling and gave first money to F. R. Hitchcock's Tepee, 16 to 5 favorite, who closed on equal terms in the betting with Toupee, owned by Green Morris. This ruling placed Rossignol, 30 to 1, and McMeekin, 10 to 1, second and third, respectively. The time was 1:14.

John A. Drake's Britisher, backed down to 3 to 5, won the first race, for maiden two-year-olds at five furlongs, Futurity course. He galloped in front of his field all the way He galloped in front of his field all the way and had two lengths to spare at the end.

Sydney Paget's Torchello, 30 to 1, and S. S. Brown's Ascot Belle, 30 to 1, had a drive for the place, the former getting it by a head.

The time was 1:00 3-5.

Mattie Corbett's Dalesman, backed down to 4 to 1, made a runaway of the handicap at a mile and a furlong, winning by five lengths. L. V. Bell's River Pirate, 13 to 5 favorite, got place money by a scant length from Eugenia Burch, 4 to 1, with E. R. Thomas's Lady Potentate, 30 to 1, a short head behind. The time was 1:52 4-5. Aurumaster, even money favorite in the last race, for maidens at a mile and a sixteenth on the grass, could not get up a respectable on the grass, could not get up a respectable gallop and was beaten off. Little Crimmins lended Gay Lizette, 8 to 1, winner by a length, St. Gallen, 15 to 1, taking the place from Nic Longworth, 15 to 1, by half a length. The time was 148 3-5. Four favorites lost and 10,000 persons looked on.

TO-DAY SCARD FOR SHEEPSHBAD. Waterbey to Make His First Appear of the Season in Second Rose.

Waterboy is slated to make his first appearance of the season to-day, in the second race, at Sheepshead Bay. It is a weight for age affair, at a mile, Waterboy meeting another noted Watercress horse, Reliable, unless the latter goes in the handicap on the grass instead. The three-year-olds Rapid Water, Broomstick and Mercury complete the list. Waterboy worked a mile the other day in 1:43% easily, and would not be sent to the post to-day if Joyner did not believe him to be fit and ready. If he wins and pulls up sound, he may be seen in the Commonwealth Handicap on Saturday. The Bay Ridge Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, is the stake feature, with Major Daingerfield conceding lumps of weight to High Chancellor, Carbuncle, Proper and others. If Reliable starts in the last race he will take up 127 pounds. The distance is a mile and a sixteenth, with Whorler, Leader and Sweet Alice figuring well. The Stirrup Cup Steeplechase and two selling events complete the longs on main track: Waterboy is slated to make his first ap-

MAY ARRANGE FIGHT TO-DAY. Young Corbett to Start Work for McGovers

-Britt and Gans to Meet. Young Corbett yesterday received the Is it true that you intend to meet Terry McGov-ern and all comers? Britt is here and sore over the news.

ern and all comers? Britt is here and sore over the news.

About an hour later another telegram was received from the same city. It read:

I got your answer and showed it to Britt. He says that he is going to do the same thing and may fight Gans here next August.

Corbett has not heard anything as yet from McGovern or his manager, but will see Sam Harris to-day and try and arrange the match. Corbett does not think that he will have any trouble in finding a battleground for the mill. He is confident that Terry will accept. Young Corbett will go to Asbury Park to-morrow and start training under the care of Harry Tuthill. Corbett says that in two weeks' time he will be able to put up the battle of his career against McGovern.

Regarding Britt's determination to fight Joe Gans, Corbett seemed plesised. He said that Britt must be in good trm or else the clever negro will whip him. If it is true that Britt and Gans are to be matched the news will be favorably received by the sports. Such a contest they contend would be one of the fistic treats of the season. Gans just now is at his beet. Britt is nothing more than a lightweight and if he beats tians it will be a big feather in his cap. If he is even whipped he will not lose anything, for he can say that he had to give away weight.

Britt in shape weighs 190 pounds. The lightweight limit is 135 pounds at the ringside. Cans declares that he can get to this limit without much trouble. It is not known just where Britt and Gans will fight, but if they do face each other the scene of the mill will be before Jim Corbett's new ciub. It is likely that such a match will draw a record breaking crowd.

JOHN A. DRAKE LOSES $20,000 ON SAVABLE. ion of Salvator Backed Off the Boards -Senator McCarren Takes a Bundle

From the Layers With Delesman -Yeager Spends Quiet Day in Ring. John A. Drake and his immediate followers lost heavily at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. They had a good sized commission on Britisher in the first race and cashed. But Drake himself dropped $5,000 on Waterside in the third. This was but a drop in the bucket.

third. This was but a drop in the bucket, however, for the Chicago turfman prepared to burn up the ring with Savable in the Equality Stakes. Savable opened at 7 to 5, but he was literally backed off the boards. It is said that Drake's commissioners got down at least $20,000, many of the layers refusing to take more at the last moment.

George Wheelook made one of the biggest bets he has placed in a long time when he wassered at 0 cm. Britisher at 4 to 5. It wagered $10,000 on Britisher at 4 to 5. It was easy money. Leo Mayer placed $5,000 on Tongorder and also had $2,000 on Dolly Spanker, cleaning up $30,000 on the two races. Eddle Burke also played Tongorder for a big bet and had $2,500 on Dolly Spanker. at 6 to 1. Frank Rayes had a $3,000 commission on Dolly Spanker, too, at similar odds. E. R. Thomas wagered $5,000 at least on St. Bellane and had a heavy bet on St. Valentine, both horses running second. As River Pirate had worked a mile and an eighth in 1:53 L. V. Bell put $5,000 on him and his example was followed by some of the biggest speculators at the track. A well known stock operator went the rounds in the last race and left $20,000 with the layers, as his selection. Aurumaster, was disgracefully beaten.

The Californians would have taken $100,000 out of the ring if Cascine had not been disqualified by the stewards after finishing first in the second event. The colt, who be-longs to C. T. Little Coleman was the cause of the fouling. for he used the whip with his left hand, caus-ing Cascine to bear out directly in the path of Tepes, so that O'Neill, on the latter, was compelled to pull up. Senator McCarren won $25,000 over the victory of Mattie Corbett's Dalesman in the fifth race, and Corbett had a big bet to cash, too. Dalesman opened at 10 to 1 and was backed down to fours. He proved to be the best good thing of the day, for he won in a gallop and came within four-fifths of a in a gallop and came within four-little of a second of equalling the track record made by Dainty last Friday. Pittsburg Phil played Eugenia Burch, while Frank Farrell and others had wagers on Agnes D., who was practically left at the post. With an equal break this erratic mare might have won, for she was third before the field had reached the end of the backstretch. In this same race Colonsay and Possession were both backed down, while Brigand was heavily was played across the board, and when she got second money through the disqualification of Cascine there were numerous happy men and women who cashed.

There was considerable confusion over the names Tepes and Toupes in this race. Both closed equal favorites at 16 to 5. When Tepes was placed first, many unscrupulous persons went to the cashiers and insisted that they had bet on the Hitchcock filly, when their wagers were recorded on the sheets under Toupee's column. But nearly sheets under Toupee's column. But nearly all the layers had taken particular pains to ask these bettors when they handed up their dollars whether it was Tepee or Toupee they wanted to back.

Joe Yeager was very quiet all day. It was said that in his bookmaking he laid the Merger Plan Hold-Up. against several of Hildebrand's mounts, but that could not be verified. The craze to back this Jockey did not result in much profit. Hildebrand rode Dandelion, a colt by Hamburg-Pansy, belonging to F. R. Hitchcock, in the first race, and though the youngster had been going great guns in his trials he could not get out of the ruck, and a heap of gold placed on him in the show books remained with the chalkers. Toupee was heavily supported because Hildebrand had the leg up, but he falled to show. The boy landed Hot Shot second in the third race and won with Dolly Spanker in the Equality, but in the fifth he was nowhere with Bri gand while in the last race he came in fourth with Yeager's Conceit, who opened at 4 to 1 and rent up to twelves. Archie Zimmer's two apprentice jockeys Crimmins and Schilling, rode the first and second horses in the last race, Gay Lizette and St. Gallen, both at long odds. Gay Lizette was widely tipped and played by the followers of such information.

In regard to the challenge from the owner of English Lad for a race at St. Louis, Bud May, the trainer of Highball, who beat English Lad in the American Derby, says that if the Western colt wants another race he will be secommodated on one of the Eastern tracks, but that under no circumstances will Highball go West again until the end of the present campaign.

Tepee won the first race of the season for F. R. Hitchcock. The filly is trained by Fred Burlew, and not W. P. Burch, who handles most of the Hitchcock string:

Bud Meyer had 100 on Cascine at 15 to 1.

He did not look at the race, but remained in a cool place under the grand stand. When he was informed that Cascine had won he smiled broadly and told his commissioners to cash in a hurry. But it was not long after-ward that Bud was saying to his friends

"Well, what do you think of it?"
Harry Schaffer, Meyer's partner, who has been racing on the National Circuit, has come back to remain for the rest of the season on the local tracks.

Snedeker, who rode James Galway's Meltonian, is an old timer. He was in his prime in the days of Guttenberg and rode in Austria In the days of Guttenerg and rough Austria last year. Henry Spencer says that the only race Snedeker won there was in a gallop by ten lengths, but the stewards took it away from him on some pretext. Meltonian, who broke down in yesterday's race, was looked upon as a possible champion last year, and Mr. Galway refused an offer of 330,000 for him, made by one of the million-size turtinen. 330,000 for him, made by one of the fininon-aire turfmen.

The Equality Stakes was run for the first time in 1902, when Dublin, 118 pounds, and Highlander, 104, ran a dead heat in 1:39. Last year W. C. Whitney's Goldsmith, 111, was vic-torious in 1:40. Dolly Spanker, therefore, has the record for the race, 1:38.

O'Neill rode two mounts.

The Crescents sent up a crack team consisting of Holcombe Ward, R. D. Little and F. B. Alexander and these players took all three matches from the home club.

In the singles Holcombe Ward easily defeated G. L. Wyeth of the New Yorks in straight sets, while Little had hard work to win from Robert Le Roy, the New York champion, two sets to one. Le Roy took the second set at 9—7 and started with a lead on the third. A sharp rally by Little won out. In the doubles Ward and Alexander made short work of Le Roy and Wylie Grant, defeating the latter team with points to spare.

DEADLOCK OF AUTO BODIES.

of the American Motor League and others, just issued by I. B. Potter, president of the organization, makes it plain that the amalganation of that body with the American Automobile Association is no nearer at h and than was a month ago, although the individual members of both organizations have voted in favor of it. The statement of President Potter reveals just where the trouble is. The plan of merger submitted to the members of the rival organizations and approved by them provides that a governing board, composed of ten members of each organization, shall be formed and that this board shall manage and control the affairs of the united body. It provides also that a constitution and by-laws shall be submitted to this governing board for adoption, after having been prepared by a committee of four, composed of two members of the American Motor League and two members of the American Automobile Association.

No constitution and by-laws have been submitted to this governing body. The draft of these articles has been held up by the A. A. A. dictating as a sine qua non that the clubs of its membership shall be able to cast their full individual vote by proxy, while the individual members of the A. M. L. may the individual members of the A. M. L. may not have the same privilege of representation. The A. M. L. representatives are willing to yield to the provision for proxies for club members, but insist in return upon an equal proxy privilege for A. M. L. members. This would unsettle the control of affairs so that it might not remain in the hands of a certain coterie as it has been since the beginning of the A. A. A.

The grievousness of the hold-up to the A. M. L. representatives is that it is being done by the A. A. A. executive committee in defiance of the plan approved by its members. Regarding the situation. President Potter said to The Sun reporter:

The obvious way out of the deadlock is to let the joint committee on constitution submit two reports to the governing body provided for and leave it to that board to decide. If a deadlock occurs in the governing board on the question the plan of merger voted for by the members will at least have been carried out as far as possible. At present the plan is being held up midway in its progress.

BOSTON, June 27.—The New Yorks climbed still higher in the pennant race to-day by giving the Beaneaters a sound drubbing. The work of Dougherty with the willow was again the feature of the afternoon. In five times at bat he singled twice and drove out a fine double, scoring three runs. Powell was the stumbling block to hitting by the locals. No hits were made off him until the fourth when Stahl and Collins singled, the former going to third on Andersons fumble. Stahl scored on Parent's fly to Keeler.

Stahl got in a double in the sixth, but was left on the bag. In the eighth, Ferris singled and Farrell walked. Tannehill hit to right for two bases, scoring Ferris. Stahl flied to Keeler, Farrell scoring. Collins drove one to Conroy, who fumbled, and another run came in, the batter being safe. Freeman flied to Conroy. Parent singled, but O'Neil retired the side by fanning.

et Un Manages to Finish. The Fiat III. and the Vingt et Un met rec-terday afternoon in the first race of a sprice for a $2,000 gold trophy. This race has been talked of for many months and it was expected that it would be a contest worth going miles to witness. Smith and Mabler, the owners of the Vingt et Un, and Hollander owners of the vingt et Un, and Hollander and Tangeman, owners of the Flat III. each had a boat built to race and by a mutual arrangement the Larchmont Yacht Chub was to manage the contests. After this was to manage the contests. Also series of races the trophy is to be held by the Larchmont Yacht Club and is to be raced for by amateurs who own auto boats. The deed of gift governing the conditions of the cup have been properly drawn up and exe-cuted and the cup is now on exhibition in the Larchmont Yacht Club house.

An excursion steamer, the William Storrie, left the city early in the morning with a crowd of enthusiasts on board. The turn Unique was chartered for the use of the regatta committee and two races were to have gatta committee and two races were to have been decided during the day.

Owing to various mishaps it was half-past 2 o'clock when the two boats went to the line for the first race. The Fist III. was steared by C. H. Tangeman. She is 38 feet 4½ inches on the waterline, has a 66.26 horse-power motor and rates at 85.6. The Vingt et Un was sterred by C. M. Hamilton. This boat is 38 feet 8 inches on the waterline, has a 48.7

The regatta committee chose a triangular course 15 miles long for the first race, and when the starting signal sounded, C. H. Tamperman, as usual, had the Fist moving fast and in the lead. She crossed the line 11 seconds after the signal, and the Vingt et Un was 30 seconds late. Both yachts were moving fast, and when they disappeared the Vingt et Un appeared to have gamed a tribe on the Fist. The Vingt et Un finished the tround at 3:39.07, having taken 1 hour amountes 7 seconds to make the 15 miles. The Fist was nowhere in sight. The Vingt et Un test of the stopped u few yards from the line, laying used up all her gasolene, and then drives between he two mark toats. She had taken 1 hour 35 minutes 40 seconds to make the 30 miles.

The Fist used up all her gasolene when about seven miles from the start and had to be towed home. The Vingt et Un was not driven after it was seen that the Bus had withdrawn. Both boats will take of the least and withdrawn. Both boats will take of the least and to e clock.
